ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime:

On July 21, 2014, Jimmy Johnson was arrested for Aggravated Assault by the Metropolitan Police Department, Nashville, Tennessee. According to the affidavit, the victim stated they got into an argument over a chair the victim's friend was sitting on. Mr. Johnson went inside the residence. The victim attempted to go inside the residence in which Mr. Johnson kept slamming the door shut. The victim once again opened the door and saw Mr. Johnson standing in the doorway holding a box cutter in his hand. The victim tried running away, tripped and fell, and Mr. Johnson stood over him. The victim believed Mr. Johnson was going to stab him. Mr. Johnson is scheduled to appear in the Davidson County General Sessions Court on August 12, 2014, Warrant Number GS686685.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

The victim, the 18 year old son of Mr. Johnson's girlfriend, states the affidavit is correct and he was in fear of bodily harm. The victim states Mr. Johnson nor the victim laid hands on one another. Natalie Floyd, Mr. Johnson's girlfriend, states an altercation did take place, but she blames the victim, her son, in starting it and did not see Mr. Johnson holding a box cutter. Mr. Johnson's term of supervised release is scheduled to terminate on January 30, 2015.

Mr. Johnson lives with family and is employed.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Johnson be continued on probation. The Court will be notified of the disposition so it may determine if any further action is necessary.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.
